Who should apply for the Canada Pension Plan Death benefit?

The CPP Death benefit is a one-time, lump-sum payment made to the estate of the deceased contributor.

If there is a will, the executor named in the will to administer the estate must apply for the Death Benefit within 60 days of the date of death.

If there is no will, or if the executor did not apply for the death benefit within 60 days of the date of death, one of the following persons should apply. Payment of the death benefit will be made in the following order of priority, upon application, to:

- the Administrator appointed by the Court; or
- the person or institution who has paid, or who is responsible for the payment of the deceased’s funeral expenses; or
- the surviving spouse or common-law partner of the deceased; or
- the next-of-kin of the deceased.

Did the deceased contribute to the Quebec Pension Plan (Régime de rentes du Québec)?

A person may contribute to both the Canada Pension Plan and Quebec Pension Plan. The contributions made under both plans are combined when a benefit entitlement is calculated. If the deceased spouse or common-law partner only contributed to the Quebec Pension Plan, or if he/she contributed to both plans and resided in Quebec, or the last province of residence in Canada was Quebec at the time of death, you should contact:

Please send a certified photocopy instead of the original document

When you send us documents, we suggest you send certified photocopies rather than the original documents, if possible. This will ensure the original documents stay with you in case you need them for other purposes. If you must send your original documents, we suggest you send them by registered mail. We will return all the original documents to you.

Photocopy of an original document

We can only accept a photocopy of an original document if it is readable and if you have someone certify that it is a true copy of the original. If you bring your original documents to any Service Canada Centre, our staff will photocopy the documents and certify them for free. If you cannot visit a Service Canada Centre, you can ask a member of one of the following professions to certify your photocopy:

- Accountant
- Chief of First Nations Band
- Commissioner for Oaths
- Employee of a Service Canada Centre acting in an official capacity
- Funeral Director
- Justice of the Peace
- Lawyer, Magistrate, Notary
- Manager of Financial Institution
- Medical and Health Practitioners: Chiropractor, Dentist, Doctor, Naturopathic Doctor, Nurse Practitioner, Ophthalmologist, Optometrist, Pharmacist, Psychologist, Registered Nurse
- Member of Parliament or their staff
- Member of Provincial Legislature or their staff
- Minister of Religion
- Municipal Clerk
- Official of a federal or provincial government department, or one of its agencies
- Official of an Embassy, Consulate or High Commission
- Official of a country with which Canada has a reciprocal Social Security Agreement
- Police Officer
- Professional Engineer
- Social Worker
- Teacher
- University Professor

People who certify photocopies must compare the original document to the photocopy, state their official position or title, sign and print their name, give their telephone number and indicate the date they certified the document. They also must write the following statement on the photocopy:

This photocopy is a true copy of the original document which has not been altered in any way.

Note: If your photocopy is missing any of the above elements, it will not be accepted and you will have to submit a new, properly certified photocopy, which will result in delays in processing your application.
Photocopy of an original document (continues)

If an original document has information on both sides, both sides must be photocopied and certified.

You cannot certify photocopies of your own documents and you cannot ask a relative to do it for you.

Please write the Client Identification Number or Social Insurance Number on any document or photocopy that you send us.

Filling out your application

The following information explains how to complete the application form. Where needed, explanations have been provided. These explanations match the box numbers on the application form.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone numbers listed in the section called "How to contact us".

Section A: Information about the deceased

Box 1A
Social Insurance Number
Enter the deceased contributor's Social Insurance Number in this box.

The Death Benefit is based on how much, and for how long, the deceased contributed to the Canada Pension Plan. The deceased's earnings and contributions to the plan are kept in a "Record of Earnings" file under his/her Social Insurance Number. To make sure that we use the deceased's record of earnings, you must indicate the deceased's Social Insurance Number in question 1A.

If the deceased had more than one Social Insurance Number, please attach a note to your application, listing all numbers assigned to the deceased.

Box 1B
Date of birth
You do not need to provide proof of birth for the deceased if you provided their Social Insurance Number in the application. However, the Canada Pension Plan has the right to request proof of birth at any time, when deemed necessary.

If you did not provide the Social Insurance Number of the deceased, then you must submit a certified true copy of the deceased's original birth certificate.

If you do not have one of these documents and the deceased was born in Canada, you can obtain a copy of the deceased's birth certificate by contacting the provincial or territorial birth, marriage or death registration office in the province or territory where the deceased was born.

For people born in Canada, acceptable birth certificates are ones issued by a Provincial birth, marriage or death registration office. You can find the telephone numbers in the provincial or territorial government listings of the telephone book (usually listed as a Provincial Vital Statistics office). If you cannot get one of these documents, please call us. One of our service delivery agents will let you know what other kind of documents you can use to confirm the deceased's date of birth.

Date of death
You must submit proof of the deceased contributor's date of death with your application. To be accepted as proof, the document must give the name, date and place of death. The document must also be on official letterhead or contain a seal, and provide the name and/or signature of the person or authority issuing the document. The following documents may be accepted as proof of date of death.

ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTS FOR PROOF OF DEATH:

- Burial or Death Certificate
- Certification of Death from another country, if an agreement on social security exists with that country
- Life or Group Insurance Claim along with a statement signed by a medical doctor
- Medical Certification of Death
- Memorandum of Notification of Death issued by the Chief of National Defence Staff
- Notarial copy of Letters of Probate
- Official Death Certificate
- Official Notification from the Public Trustee for a Province
- Registration of Death
- Statement of a medical doctor, coroner or funeral director
- Statement of Verification of Death from the Department of Veterans Affairs
Box 3
Marital status at the time of death

Under the Canada Pension Plan, a Survivor's pension can be paid to the person who, at the time of death, was the legal spouse or common-law partner of the deceased contributor. Benefits can also be paid to the surviving children of the contributor.

If you feel this applies to you, please contact us to obtain an application for "Canada Pension Plan Survivors pension".

Box 7
Did the deceased ever live or work in another country?

Canada has international agreements on social security with many countries. If your answer to question 7 is yes, you should provide us with the name of the country and the insurance number issued to the deceased by that country.

The deceased may have accumulated credits that could help qualify the estate or survivors for Canadian benefits under an international social security agreement. The deceased's Canada Pension Plan credits can also help qualify the estate or the survivors for a foreign pension. You will be advised in writing if either of the above conditions apply to the deceased.

Box 9
Child Rearing Provision

This provision may help the estate qualify for the CPP Death benefit if the deceased received Family Allowances or was eligible to receive the Child Tax Benefit on behalf of any children born after December 31, 1958. Obtain and complete the form entitled "Canada Pension Plan Child Rearing Provision" and return it with your application.

Non-Resident Tax

If you are a non-resident of Canada for income tax purposes, we may deduct a Non-Resident Tax from the Canada Pension Plan Death benefit. The tax rate is 25% unless the country you live in has a tax treaty with Canada that reduces the rate or exempts you from paying the tax.

Section D: Applicant's declaration

To complete the application, you have to sign and date it in this section.

Note: If you make a false or misleading statement, you may be subject to an administrative monetary penalty and interest, if any, under the Canada Pension Plan, or may be charged with an offence. Any benefits you received or obtained to which there was no entitlement would have to be repaid.

Section E: Witness's declaration

If you signed your application with a mark, a witness has to sign and date the application in that section and provide their name, address, relationship to you, and telephone number in case we need to contact that person.
