John Richard Green

MARCH 10, 2018

John passed away peacefully at the Claresholm Hospital on Saturday, March 10th, 2018, four days short of his 96th birthday. He was born in Pandora, Alberta and considered himself a lanky six foot two son of the Southern Alberta Prairies.

John was a passionate family man, farmer and pilot. He farmed for 70 years in the High River, Nanton areas and was an active member of the Flying Farmer community for close to 30 years. He was a founding member and long-time volunteer at the Bomber Command Museum.

He is lovingly remembered by his family of six children, Neall (Llizabet) Coulson, Lloyd (Pauline) Green, Teresa Husted, Sharalee Greene, Rodney (Maureen) Green, Ellen (Wayne) Brown; 21 grandchildren; 31 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. John is predeceased by his first wife, Jean (Stephenson) in 1960 and Rita (Cameron) in 2017.

A Memorial Service in John’s honour will be held at the Nanton Community Centre on Saturday, April 21, 2018 at 2:00 PM. Donations in John’s memory may be made to the Bomber Command Museum of Canada, PO Box 1051, Nanton, AB T0L 1R0. Messages of condolence may be left for the family at www.myalternatives.ca or Green Family, Box 178, Nanton, AB T0L 1R0.

Messages of Condolence

Dear Rod & Ellen and Siblings,

We want to offer our condolences on your dad's passing. He was a very bubbly happy man. He always made a special effort to talk to us and we enjoyed talking to him. Ellen, I enjoyed running into you at Castle Mountain, we had a very nice visit. Your dad will be missed.

All our Love,

Julie & Herb Ten Hove

My condolences to Lloyd, Teresa, Sharalee, and all their siblings and offspring which are becoming too numerous to mention. I have many fond memories of times meeting John in various situations over many years. He was always clear and precise and spoke with a glint of humour in his eyes. Sad to say goodbye. We can be grateful we had him with is so long. My love to you all.

— David Chris Loree

my deepest sympathies to the entire family.
