Very proud of the man you became. The hearts you touched and your dedication to help and fight for others will never be forgotten. I will miss our chats and hold on to the memories we shared over the years. You always took the time to make me feel important from the moment our families came together and for 30 years I was able to watch you grow from a curious little boy into a fine young man who loved his family and friends dearly. Forever in my heart!
Love always, uncle Jamie
