Messages of Condolence

Dearest Family of Rose,

We join with so many others who knew Rose in offering our deepest sympathy on her passing. Although it is of little consolation at this sad time, it should be some satisfaction to know that in her passing you can celebrate the end of a very long and productive life.

The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on her loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that hers was indeed a life well-lived.

Rose was Mom's best friend and confidant, always smiling, energetic, caring and full of life. Mom loved her dearly and couldn't wait for their meetings and now they will be together forever in heaven.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that her loss is felt by all who knew and loved her.

In Sympathy, Raymond, Pat and Andy

— Pat & Andy Simon and Raymond Kemp
