I had the pleasure of meeting Jason many years ago, when he was hanging out in the Millarville area, he was always very respectful, thoughtful, kind and very funny. Hold your head high, you raised a wonderful young man. RIP Jason I will forever remember your smile.

— Kristy Cheesman

Jason was a great friend. We ALWAYS had a blast when we hung out. It didn't matter our current ages, we regressed to high school around each other. Laugh at farts, do stupid things and giggle, act immature but laughter was always involved. He was accommodating and truly cared for people close to him. With that said, when he wanted to be a jackass, he could pour it on. Thing is, it made us both laugh even harder. We grew up together and spent a lot of time together over the years. I always saw him as my brother. You will be greatly missed Jas.
