Biddy MacKenzie

JUNE 28, 2021

Youngest of four, Biddy was born December 28, 1938 in Big Sand, Scotland, predeceased by sister Jessie and Brother Alex, survived in Scotland by sister Annabelle, with nieces Linda, Mairi and families.

Following some years battling poor health our dear Biddy passed away at home with us June 28th at the age of 82. A kinder and more loving wife and mother could not be; our hearts are broken, our world forever changed and words cannot tell what we feel at losing her. We will never forget her love and concern for Ryan and myself, even while suffering ongoing painful and debilitating health issues of her own; it was hard in recent times to watch her painful struggle while unable to do anything to help her.

We will always remember Biddy’s love and kindness as mother, wife and best friend. Days ahead will be sad ones and will not soon go away but in the end perhaps we can take comfort and solace from cherished memories and in knowing that for her, at last, the pain is over. Eternal Love, Ryan and Willie.

You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence for the family.

Our hearts were truly saddened, when sad news we did hear
The "passing" of a mother, and a wife you loved so dear
You will have cherished memories, as you reminisce the past
Though Biddy no more with us, fond memories sure will last

Again we send condolences, as you adjust to life
For both of you are grieving, a dear mother and a wife
We share with you, your sorrow, your loss is deep and wide
Our thoughts are always with you, although the seas divide.

For sure a ray of sunshine, Biddy now has no more pain
She will be there a waiting, until you meet again
She left behind a legacy, a void that's hard to fill
You'll both have happy memories, her spirit guides you still.

— Hector and Morag
