Sheila Marie Vuksanovich

MARCH 24, 2016

VUKSANOVICH, Sheila Marie

Sheila went to the University of Calgary and completed her Bachelor of Arts in English. She was a passionate musician, proficient in both the saxophone and guitar. Even while going through cancer treatment, she performed in Front Row Center's production of Tommy the musical. She lived her life to the fullest, from travelling the globe to spending quality time with friends and family.

Sheila's true passion, over all other things, was giving joy and happiness to others. She would ask for nothing, because all she really wanted was for others to smile. Her last and only request was for others to continue enjoying life.

Sheila is lovingly remembered by her fiancé, Kent Miles; her parents, Peter & Wendy Vuksanovich. She is also remembered by several loving aunts, uncles, cousins and innumerable friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Centre Street Church, 3900 – 2 Street NE, Calgary, AB on Saturday, April 2, 2016 at 11:00 am.

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not here to share
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to She'd hope that you can carry on, the way you always do
So talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared

The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared

Let memories surround you.

A word someone may say

Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day

That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here

And fills you with the feelings that she is always near

For if you keep these moments, you will never be apart

And she will live forever locked safe within your heart
