We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Carol, wife, mother, grandmother, aunt, and friend.

We can remember so many times enjoying the beauty in your home that created an ambiance of your mom's talents and creativity. When visiting your home we enjoyed the aromas of good cooking and sharing in a wonderful time of visiting. These are precious memories.

There are no words for a time as sad as this. Please remember many people are upholding you in their prayers at this difficult time. Lean in to Jesus! He will sustain you through it all.
