Hi Vic - So sorry to learn of Elizabeth's passing - we saw her obituary in the Van Sun today. Gerry Cowper had mentioned that she was ill and in the Hospice. A sad time for you. We have lived in PM for 1 1/2 years now - still miss Richmond some but are adapting. We do miss YVR. Take care. Please accept our condolences. We wish you and you family all the best. Ivone & Bob

Ann was the best boss ever. We sure had fun at work every day at Crossroads Travel. Ann taught me a lot and we had 2 very good years together. We always stayed in touch and I shall miss her very much.

May she rest in peace now

God Bless you Ann

I have been a friend of Ann's since the early 50's - she had such a great sense of humour and so enjoyed her last visit back here in Ireland. I shall miss our long chats on the telephone - no matter what way she was feeling, she always left me feeling better - we always had a laugh together.

My heartfelt sympathy to Victor, Paul and John and their families - you will all miss her so much. I shall keep you all in my prayers but hope you will remember all your happy memories of your fun times together.

Very sincerely,

Hilda Potterton, Ireland.

My love, thoughts and prayers go to you, Victor and family. May your wonderful memories and good times help get you through this difficult time.

We have always thoroughly enjoyed being with Auntie Ann (and family) and the numerous and humorous conversations we have had on the phone. She was a great laugh.

I have particularly enjoyed hearing about her life growing up in Ireland, and stories about my mother and grandparents.

We particularly have fond memories of being with her and uncle Victor on their 50th wedding anniversary and also of spending Christmas with her and her family. Auntie Ann was a great host and a tremendous cook! I am still in awe of her turkey cooking ability!

We miss her very much and send our condolences and love to Uncle Victor, Paul, John and families.

I have been a friend of Ann's for several years and have some great memories of outings and telephone conversations.

Even though I live in ONT. we have always kept in touch of which I will miss very much.

My heartfelt thoughts and prayers to the family and now may she rest in peace.

— Dee Smith
