Cliff Barnes

DECEMBER 11, 2023

Sadly, we lost a legend. Cliff Barnes – Loving husband, dad, Grandpa, friend, and human being, he will be deeply missed by many. He would give the shirt off his back if you were cold, the food from his fridge if you were hungry, the keys to his car if you needed a ride, and the last beer in the fridge if you were thirsty. The door was always open to his home and to his heart. Best of all, as you were leaving, he would holler “If you need anything, anything at all, don’t hesitate to ask!” He was always there; he will be always here in our hearts.

Messages of Condolence

Dawn and families, I was so saddened tonight seeing the news of Cliff`s passing. Thinking of you all at this most difficult time. Cliff will be missed and remembered by so many.

— Jeannette Nelson

They broke the mold with this guy. A legend in the log barge fraternity! RIP Cliff

— Pat Tracey

Dawn and families...condolences to all.. .write up describes that man perfectly...RIP Cliff. ..many memories of you....

— Bonnie Coutu

Shared many a beer with this guy in the old timers beer league - a true friend- he will be missed!

— Al Kirk

Love you Grandpa ! I will always remember our fishing trips and swimming pool times among other great adventures that I've been lucky enough to experience with you. Cheers to you & your amazing life □ □ forever a role model and hero of mine love forever R.I.P big guy

-Graham.

— Graham Barnes

Oh my Dad God rest your soul all the memories you have giving me will be in my heart forever ♥ all the adventures that you brought to me all the good times we had together I will remember forever I love you Dad Rest In Peace

— Russell Barnes
