Peggy, I knew you too briefly and too sporadically, but I have a pleasant picture of you in my mind sitting at Louise's table in Duchess (likely one Christmas so long ago). You have a lovely family who will carry your memories and the memory of you in their hearts. Now you know the fullness of the unconditional and powerful love and peace of God - no more fear. Absent from the body, present with the Lord. I look forward to seeing you again one day!

Dear Louise,
The Quinn family remembers your Mom (and Dad) with such fun, fond memories and although we had not seen your Mom in many years her wonderful smile and laugh came to mind when we read the news of her passing. We are so very sorry for your loss.

take care,
Marian
