Love you, Till we meet again

Messages of Condolence

I have known Hector for as long as I have Known my wife Keri Cyr, he was always in good spirits. I will remember him for his love for hockey and football and paper reading and always being vary educated in politics (as I was not) but tried to act kind of smart about it. I would enjoy talking about farming and sipping a could beer with the old guy, and I believe he did as well. Hector; I will miss you and promise to take look over your Barb and Keri to the best of my ability. Till next time pal!!

— Andre Cyr

I just wanted to leave a note to say how much I am going to miss Hector. He was a very special part of our family for many years. I will especially miss his infectious laugh and our Roughrider talks. He was definitely a sweet soul and I know he will be terribly missed by all who knew him.

— Tina Timmons

I have been friends with the bechard family for many years now. I always enjoyed hector's great sense of humour and happy nature. My prayers go out to all family and friends. He will always be remembered.

Jimmy (bonzo) meyerhoffer.
