I was so sadden by the news about John. He was a wonderful person. I use to look forward to seeing him at the fieldhouse. I must say that I was looking forward again to seeing him at the fieldhouse since I had not gone over the summer months. I am certain that he was a blessing to all his family and friends." Never a doubt dear John that someday we shall wake and give whats left of love again."

I am another "Field House " member who blurted a few solid curse words upon learning of John's passing. What a great Guy! Always a staunch gym rat- eager to joke, make quirky comments and engage everyone in witty conversation. When ever I had a story about my kids, he was ready to tell one about his sisters children. Missed but never forgotten, cya later John.

There are so many of us from the Fieldhouse.. that just heard about John's passing. I for one, kept asking around if anyone had seen him recently because I had not. John and I probably knew each other for 25+ years. I am saddened, I am shocked. He was just a thoughtful, intelligent and kind individual.

John was always hungry. He Loved his pail of ice cream (not low fat either) every week, his fieldhouse french fries, his drinks of Scotch AND going to his sister's house for Sunday dinners.

My sincere sympathies to the family. What a loss to you.

— Debb Fisher
