Jeanette Dianna Boldt, December 10, 1940 -
October 16, 2023

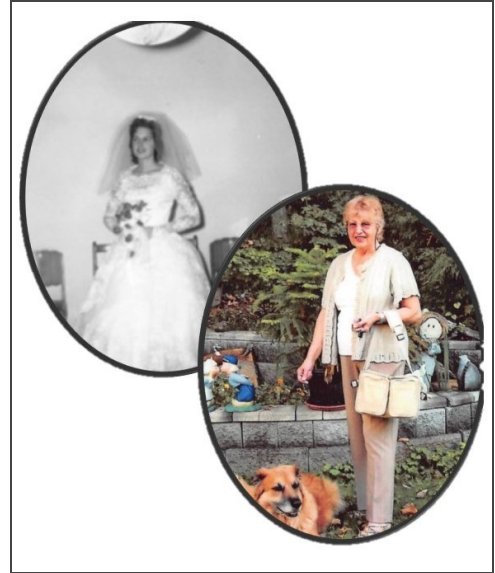

It is with enduring love, that we announce the passing of Jeanette D Boldt. She was married to one Ernst Boldt for a period of 19 years, later divorced, but both remained in each others lives and had created three beautiful children.

Jeanette worked a career at BCIT for some 28 years, until she retired. She had a common law partner, Roger Sewell for some 25 years until his passing. A resident of Langley B.C, for 45 years, in her same home, that she worked so hard for, and for her three children.

Jeanette loved her home, and gardening, planting her trees and decorating the landscape with rocks, she had brought home from the many travels she experienced. Jeanette loved playing her piano and had a voice to match. She had many friendships and cherished each of them. She enjoyed fishing and camping with anyone and her dogs.

Jeanette was survived by her three children, Steven, Stewart, and Tamara, her two grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. Sorrow fills the hearts of her remaining siblings Earl, Roger, Tom, and only sister Linda.

Jeanette was a beautiful, vivacious, energetic woman. Jeanette will be truly missed by all who had known her, and has left a most generous legacy, for her family. Rest in peace, MOM, we're all going to miss all your unconditional hugs and kisses. We love you.
