David, Mat, Addy and Merrit,
Margaret was a remarkable person and will be greatly missed. We hope for your family that in the coming days you will find comfort, strength, and peace from the caring hearts that surround you.

— Bill and Arletta Cross and family

I first met Marg in Grade 10 at Bishop Grandin. Unbeknownst to us both, we each enrolled in Pharmacy at the U of A. So once again we were classmates - I was thrilled.
After graduation, I would frequently see Marg at continuing education events and always enjoyed the opportunity to catch up. She will be dearly missed.
My thoughts and prayers are with the Bolduc and Lencucha families.

— Susan Cosgrove (nee Lefaivre)

Dear David and family, we were shocked and saddened to hear of Margaret's passing. Hold on to your memories. Our sincere condolences.

— Sally Northcutt

I had known Margaret for more than 30 years and was so shocked and saddened to hear of her untimely passing. We were both pioneers in setting up pharmacy practice in small hospitals and she represented our profession so admirably. She was always so personal and kind. May you, Margaret's family take some small solace in knowing how respected she was by her colleagues.

— Linda Poloway
