I believe your father might be the Adoph that lived at the College Park Retirement Residents when my father Wilhelm Reinoehl lived there in 2011 and 2012 (my father passed away Oct. 2012). I once in a while look in the Regina obituaries to see if I recognize someone that lived their with my father and who I might now but not knowing last names I would also put in College Park as a search word and if someone died somewhere else I wouldn't know. I got to know quite a bit of the residents as when I came to visit my dad I actually stayed for a few nights. I often visited with Adolph and always told him hello. I miss my the friends my dad knew there. Sorry to hear that Adolph passed away.
