Janet Gertrude Bradley

FEBRUARY 4, 2015

Janet Gertrude Bradley, born in 1942, in Vancouver, British Columbia, passed away February 4, 2015 in Saint Paul’s Hospital, in the company of close family. Janet spent 49 years of her life partnered with her late husband, and soul mate, Wayne. Janet was a treasured mother of three children, her eldest son Wayne, her late daughter Susan, and her youngest Nancy with whom she had a dear closeness. Janet raised her grandchildren, Alex and Amber, after the passing of her eldest daughter, whom she supported throughout their lives. She was greatly cherished as well by her youngest granddaughter, Stephanie, and her son-in-law, Robert, who expressed endless loving support of her during her illness. Her four younger siblings, Doreen, Esther, Ruth, and Joseph, will miss her positive nature at family gatherings. She is the daughter of the late Joseph, and is survived by her mother, Emily, whom she treasured.

Janet will be remembered as a strong woman, who possessed unique abilities in empathy and compassion towards her family, friends, and neighbors. Janet spread her love in the communities in which she lived, and was graciously self-sacrificing. Many will miss her dearly.

Services will be held on Thursday, February 12th at St Ann's Parish, located at 33333 Mayfair Avenue, in Abbotsford BC, at 3:00PM. A reception will follow the service, at The Salvation Army Cascade Community Church, 35190 Delair Road, Abbotsford BC.

You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence for the family.
