Messages of Condolence

Oh Daddy dream't about you again last night my sweet Daddy lead me through this please. I love you daddy forever and ever amen

— Patricia Brooks

I still look across the street to your old house and have visions of my early childhood years with you and Joan residing there. I recall the stories you told of my vibrant mother, back in those days, racing across the street to mow your lawn when you were going up and down the slope of the front yard. You are a wonderful man and have accomplished all that God has wanted from you, here... Now you are home into the welcoming arms of our loving father.
