Messages of Condolence

I'm so sorry to have missed seeing her since Xmas. We had wonderful visits while she was in hospital, loved her scripture and prayers. St. Andrew's office staff so appreciated her volunteering on Fridays. Along with her faithful companion Margaret would make us tea and bring goodies each week somehow the group grew! It was lovely community time no one wished to miss!
I'm sure the family will miss her quiet presence.

Lois was a faithful member of our group at St. Andrew's that made sandwiches for the Drop-In Centre on a monthly basis. She was such a loyal and dedicated volunteer for decades, walking the short distance from her home to the church each time. We missed her when we moved to from St. Andrew's to Deer Park and Lois decided to retire.

I enjoyed getting to know Lois when I worked in the office at St. Andrew's United Church. Friday afternoon's Lois and Margaret Stewart would come to help me by folding the bulletins. That by itself was wonderful but they would also bring cookies and make a pot of tea and get the staff to sit down for a lovely break. Always one of the highlights of the week. It was interesting to hear a bit about Lois' adventures in Australia as a young woman and other happenings in her life. I visited Lois this fall when she was in the palliative care unit. We chatted as we walked the halls. I'm not sure she quite remembered me at that point but it didn't matter.
I am sure I am just one of many people that Lois touched during her life. It was a pleasure to know her. You are in my prayers.

Our condolences to Richard, David and Sandy and families on the passing of Lois. She and Ty were such good neighbours to my parents. They shared a mutual hobby, metal detecting. They enjoyed good chats over the phone, and tea in each others' kitchens. Lois was good enough to watch the house and take in the mail when my parents were away. She also served as their lifeline respondent for several years, and more than once shovelled snow all the way from her front door to theirs. Rest in peace.

We are very sorry for your loss. I have many great memories of my Aunt Lois and Uncle Ty from when I was young. Aunt Lois was always such a sweet lady, smiling and happy. Our thoughts are with you all. Love from Dan and Connie Douglas
