Messages of Condolence

Terrie & Craig and families for the loss of your loving mother, keep all your precious close to heart, sending hugs

— Heather Russell

I am so sorry for your loss, when someone passes away, I always think of this poem by William Wordsworth "That though the radiance which was once so bright be now forever taken from my sight. Though nothing can bring back the hour of splendor in the grass, glory in the flower. We will grieve not, rather find strength in what remains behind."
My thoughts are with you and your families.

— Laura Berndt

Fay was an amazing, strong and kind person. She helped my mom through a lot of stuff and was always there to listen. Sending hugs to your family. From Chelsa Walmsley and family.

— Chelsa Walmsley

Sending my condolences to Shirley Murphy and all families for your great loss.

— Carolyn Janes

My condolences to all of Fay's family. Much love and strength to you all.

— Marianne

Our deepest sympathies to the whole family. They say time heals all, and speaking from experience, that is true. I hope he whole family can start to heal and remember the lessons Fay taught you that will get you through these sad times. We are thinking of you.

— Mary & Francis Trace

I remember siting around the Campbell kitchen table playing cards and board games like Ratrace with Fred Fay and Craig. Thinking of you Craig on the loss of your mother and the rest of the family.

— Larry Martin

Fay was such a sunny person! She stayed strong through adversity and was an inspiration to so many, I have been amazed by her resilience.
Even though I didn’t know her really well, I very much enjoyed the times we did visit and I enjoyed hearing about all her travels and exploits. I’m quite certain Fay was one of a kind, a very special lady and will be greatly missed.
Our condolences to all the family.
