My memories of Sara almost always consist of us laughing.

I can only imagine the memories Cory and the kids have with her. May those memories bring you all a little peace and light.

To Sara's Family- I am shocked and so sad to learn of Sara's passing. I met her when she joined my team at the Y. From the first day I met her I fell in love with her wonderful disposition, her pride in her work, her laughter and her sense of humour. Above all else though her love for and pride in Taylor, Hunter and Elizabeth were always first and foremost. We all are worse off without Sara and I will miss our wonderful sporadic phone conversations. Keep the precious memories of your mom tucked tight in your heart and she will continue to guide and comfort you.
