Messages of Condolence

Our sincere condolences to you all.

Yvonne and myself met Bob in 1968 along with a few other friends in the old neighborhood in Calgary. We have many good memories from that era, but as we all grew and changed, we also drifted apart. Occasionally we would hear some news or tid bit of information about one of the old gang and we would reflect on the past. I can honestly say that Bob was one of the real fun guys and we always enjoyed ourselves. We all have our own families now and different friends but even though we didn't stay in touch our old friends were never forgotten. We pray for Bob's family and hope this brings you closer together to mourn his loss. May the peace of God settle gently on your hearts.
