Messages of Condolence

I'm so deeply sorry to the family. I knew her when I was in my teen years and always remember her infectious smile.

Eva, it's hard to believe that you have left us and that we must say our last goodbyes. Before you get to comfortable with your maker, and when you're making small talk with him, maybe you could put in a few good words for us. Our hearts are heavy and sad that you had to go in such a hurry, God must have needed you. We love you, and miss you already... and this will go on forever... Sending you big hugs. Peace be with you!

Love you always Gord and Brenda

— Gord and Brenda Tashulak

I wish we had more time together, I had plans to call you Tuesday. I wish I had picked up the phone on Monday and many more before. I wish I could call you now, so many times I have thought to but put it off until tomorrow. I ran out of tomorrow's and I so regret that. I know you are free now and at rest, you are missed and will be until we can all be together again. Losing you so soon has made me realize that we need to make time to stay in touch because you never know when it will be too late.

Love your little sister Marcie

— Marcia Langlois

My deepest sympathy goes out to you all. Although it has been a long time since I spent time with Eva, I know how much she will be missed. May wonderful memories carry you through the tough times. Sharlene and family.

— Sharlene Taylor

Eva, I will always have great memories of you. We were best friends for many years growing up, we were inseparable. Hugs and kisses to all of the family and our fabulous times together ♥
