

Adam Michael Clarke

AUGUST 5, 2017

"Put your hands on the wheel Let the golden age begin Let the window down Feel the moonlight on your skin, Let the desert wind Cool your aching head Let the weight of the world Drift away instead"

-Beck

Messages of Condolence

Adam, I'll always remember your sharp and witty sense of humor. Lots of laughs around the Richardson kitchen table and Weldon's classes. Please keep an eye on us from heaven and keep the angels amongst you laughing. You will be missed.
