I was sorry and relieved to hear of Lorraine`s death.We have been friends for over 75 years, keeping in touch by phone calls and renewing old memories. Lorraine was a unselfish person who did a great deal for others during her life.

Beverley, I know Lorraine was comforted having you with her during her final days. May the Lord have mercy on her soul.

My sympathy to you Beverly and Wayne in the loss of a very caring sister. I first met Lorraine in the late 60s through her Ottawa west friends. She was the original recycler..there was little she wanted that she wasn’t able to find at a garage sale or in St. Vincent de Paul. Lorraine was also very creative like the time she wallpapered the blades of the ceiling fan in her bedroom. Keeping you both in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.Rosemarie

Maegan, Wayne and Family,
Lloyd and I knew Lorraine "back in the day" and enjoyed Happy Hours with her and Mike. We know Wayne only to wave to him on our walks and drives. Maegan, it has been our pleasure to meet you recently on our walks. Lorraine touched the lives of many in our neighborhood as well as your family. Our condolences.
Sincerely,
Lloyd and Judy
