My mom has a video of your (maybe 7th) birthday party. Every now and then I watch it and see you as a young child. These are my memories of you and growing up. We were bobbing for apples and it made me laugh because you can see your hand going inside the cooler to try and grab one. We were also doing freeze dance and the smile on your face was so big. I'm so sorry that you were taken away so quickly. We will miss you.

We are so sorry for your loss - you're in our thoughts and we're sending love your way. Rest easy now, Maegan. ☐ since you've passed you have left a very deep place that I don't think anyone could ever fill. The stories I have heard through so many people about how much they love you and look up to you. They all have very similar points. You we're an amazing woman. You loved hard and protected those you loved. I myself share a few hilarious memories with you and will cherish those forever. Your spirit lives on in each and every one of us and I know Memphis will be raised to hear these many heart warming stories of how silly, caring and beautiful his mama was.

Aunt Maegan,

I know you're looking down on all of us and are holding your baby boy Bishop tight. Until we meet again, I love you.

Rest in Paradise sweet angel

Dear auntie , it's your niece brittany here writing you one last message.. i hope you know that you were the best aunt ever and I looked up to you and love you so much and care about you so much even though sometimes I never showed it I truly do though you will always be in my heart and our family's and your friends I'm glad I have the memories of us that I do.. that is one thing that no one can take from us auntie , I promise you I will help take care of Memphis as much as I can same everyone else he will be shown the love that you have for him and that everyone else has for him. You are with god now I feel like he took you way to soon but he has plans for you that only you and him know about and I know he will take good care of you and bishop up there I also know that you will be my angel to guide me in the right directions and the things I want to accomplish xo you truly were the best and you have no idea how much you were loved you were such a beautiful person and so kind hearted and a beautiful soul and your personality was amazing no one could ever be like you or replace you. You have no idea the impact you made on people you helped people without even knowing anyone who met you or got to call you family or a friend was lucky to have you in their life's. Just know that I will always think of you and have you in my heart and that I will do my best to help out Memphis with anything whenever I can , if he ever needs advice in life or someone to just talk to I will always be there for him like you were for me auntie xo. I also will always remember the night we were at my house when I lived in thunderbird and me you and my friend had that talk on the trampoline and just about life in general and how you got a Donair kit and you made me my first donair. That memory will forever okay over and over again in my head , and I will now have to get a donair kit once in awhile to eat and to think of you and feel like I'm with you :(I might even just have to go pick one up tonight xo. I also remember you got me my first purple blackberry because I was dying for one and wanted to be "cool" and of course my best auntie ended up getting me one because you wanted me to have the best just like I want for you xo. I wish I wasn't such a chicken to be able to get on that plane to be able to see you one last time and I regret it so much , I wish I could have been there to help you in anyway possible and to say my goodbyes. You always knew how to help me and make me smile even when I didn't want to and when I was at my worst. I wish we lived closer and that I could have truly been there in person for you. I truly hope that you are at peace now and watching over all of us that need it xoxo I would write more but we would both be here forever reading this.. until we meet again my beautiful amazing auntie. Rest in paradise beautiful angel xo.

Hey auntie it's me brittany again I also forgot to mention I didn't ever get to tell you.. I'm in schooling getting my high school done.. I'm doing it for mainly myself but also mom to make her proud but now you as well I know you'll be watching down on me looking to see what I've accomplished so far and that you will be here with me still to help me I also got my drivers license finally I know you would be super proud of me right now just like I am and was always proud of you xoxo. You always told me I could do it and you were right auntie I just had to believe in myself and have faith. Thank you for always believing in me and being a supporter whenever I feel down I'll think of you and know you'll give me strength to get back up again. Whenever I feel like I can't compete anything I'll remember the words you used to tell me "you got this Britt brat I believe in you I know you can do the things you want you just have to put your mind to it baby girl". I truly love you from the bottom of my heart and always will auntie. Rest In Peace. Love brittany xo.

Meggs, I keep putting this off because I don't wanna say good bye. I don't wanna believe you're gone.. You were my aunt but we grew up like sisters all the Christmas's I'll never forget, sneaking peaks at the presents, setting our alarms to wake up and open our stockings at like 4 am and always knowing I was getting your beef jerky LOL Living room floor flooded with gifts, the holiday food fights endless memories I am so thankful to have made with you... you straightening my hair with a clothing iron, my hair hasn't been curly since lol that phone you had with the little Fido dog that would run across the screen so we could crack up laughing at Sarah trying to pronounce truck but sounded like @$&@ and you would keep restarting the phone on n off so she would keep doing it... and voies poor knees no wonder she's got problems with them we would sit on either side giving her Charlie horses. You taught my how to play baseball and came to my games when no one elts did.. monopoly will never be the same without you meggs bucks, soo many memories I will cherish for as long as I live and until we meet again Rest In Peace my sweet angel love FING xoxoxo

When I was a little girl all I wanted was to be a mom. I met you when I was eight. I held you for the first time and never wanted to put you down or let you go. I was there for your first steps I was there for your first words. I babysat other kids just to take you to the movies and buy you ice cream. You were my cousin but you were much more then that to me. As you grew we grew together. I never want to say good bye so we say 123 hang up. I still never want to say good bye because I can't imagine life forever without you. I love you so much. You never gave up on me when everyone told you to. Maegan Marie Louise coughlin for you, for Memphis, for mamasita, and for my kids and theirs I am clean I am sober and I know you are watching over me on this journey. I know when I am having a bad day its your voice I hear egging me on to keep moving forward. I don't want to meet your son that way but I promise he won't ever forget you either. I have stories to tell him and we look so much alike. I promise I will love him like I did you. To the moon and back baby girl. MAEGA

This has been a long time coming..... and still i have no words the memories all flood my head and my heart and tho they are all so amazing an I cherish them with my whole heart. I can't put anything into words... bible is so big now like bigger then you'd of ever expected especially from how tiny he was the night you left us.... I'll never forget that hospital room or the way I felt there when I told voie go home get some sleep she will be ok voie the moment she left I was on my knees at your bed side singing your favorite songs while you lay there seemingly lifeless. I know you heard me. Ill never forget the sounds of those stupid dialysis machines pumping an filtering your blood in an out i had so much faith you would make it. I will never be able to walk into another hospital again without hearing the rushing foot steps of the drs flooding into the room. It was a replay of when we lost baby B it broke me in ways i can never heal. You waited for mom and auntie Carol to get there to actually let go. I remember the last squeeze you ever gave my hand your last breath your last everything and it just breaks my heart but not my spirit you wouldn't want that. I will never understand why you had to go before me.... you were worth so much more than I.... you got me through everything and now I'm doing it on my own... bug and I each had one more baby and you would just love them soo much like you did all the others.. it hurts it will never stop hurting the good memories hurt you are the reason I met Dayton and have the amazing family I have you were the wiper of my tears the taste tester of my nasty egg noodles before I learned to cook the sneak in and sneak out master of voies houses lmao we always snuck out together you made me the God mother of your first born son baby Bishop I was there every step of the way from pregnancy to ronald mcdonald house an vancouver women an children hospital. They told us Baby B was a medical miricle he inspired so many and paved the way to so much knowledge and research that now saves many babies lives. I will never forget the day nig me and Sarah arrived in bc July 5th 2008 you ran down the carling lane towards the car with tears laugher an LOVE you were so happy to have us close again as were we.

We lived in Ontario together and in BC I literally can't and won't say good bye I will say I'll see you when I see you ☐ I love you more than words can ever explain if I wrote down every memory I have with you my my my this posted note would never end ♥ I need you I will always thank God for the years of memories I do have with you you were my auntie but we grew up like sisters and then you were my mom when I moved to BC I will never forget and I will always always speak of you to bibble he tells me now when I call him bibble the nick name you gave to him. "Auntie ri ri that's not my name my name is Memphis" " Call me Memphis" he says ☐ he's so interesting and intelligent handsome sweet kind loving compassionate and soo very much like you! I love you I love you I love you.
