After his discharge he came back home and met his wife Lois through the Gospel Chapel. They were married in June 28, 1947.

As a young family they moved to North Delta, BC where they raised their family of 4 children.

Mel served with Canada Post for the majority of his career. Starting as a letter carrier he was one of the first to drive the 3 wheeled "mail mobiles" in Surrey in 1959. He worked his way up through various positions and completed his service as a supervisor.

He took early retirement at the age of 59 and, along with Lois, continued to work as a contract rural route letter carrier for the next five years.

In 1975 Mel and Lois moved out to White Rock, then Langley, the lastly resided back in Delta at Deltaview Care Campus.

Mel and Lois were very active in the churches they attended, serving in a variety of capacities. They were charter members of Surrey Alliance, Peace Portal Alliance and they in their senior years supported Mountainview Alliance.

I am sorry for your loss Cliff and family, but he has gone on to a wonderful place

— Ida Peters

My condolences to the whole family. Oz and I spent many lovely times with Lois and Mel. I was so glad to have been in the family for the years we were given. Mel surely was an honourable man, funny and loved his family.

My condolences to the family. Mel was one of my favourite uncles and I remember a lifetime of the fun he provided with games and visits/trips with my cousins. My father and mother spent many hours with both Mel and Lois in their various homes. My family moved and one of the main reasons included worshipping at the Surrey Alliance Church with your family. I have all memorable moments with Uncle Mel as he will be missed. I am sorry that I cannot attend the service due to medical treatment.

Steve.

My condolences to the family...

Mel was one of a kind!

His kindness, humour and energy was an example to all.

He painted our house when I was a kid and I have never forgotten how he gave me a brush and showed me how to cut a line on window frames...

His generosity of spirit, the example he lived, has stayed with me this day.
