Kath was a wonderful, soft spoken kind and considerate person who always considers others. I was honoured to be her friend for thirty years. She raised three boys who have turned into wonderful men she was so proud of. She fought her battle with such strength and dignity and left on her terms and I admired her so much. Rest in peace my dear. You will be forever missed.

I was so lucky to have had the opportunity to share our last thoughts and all those thank yous others so often aren't able to share.

It's not possible to relate the sadness I feel but the world is a lot more lonely without her.
