

Randolph "Randy" Cudmore

MARCH 15, 2020

Jesus received the most amazing Angel on Sunday, March 15, 2020. Randolph Lawrence Cudmore passed away at the Foothills Hospital at 68 years of age. Randy was born on September 6, 1951 in Charlottetown, P.E.I. He was at peace after having his children, grand children and many other special people visit with him in his last days.

Randy was predeceased by his brother David Cudmore, as well as his parents Lawrence Sterling Cudmore and Rita Mae Cudmore (Edwards).

At one time labeled 'a big teddy bear' by his sisters, Randy adored caring for his family and all animals he encountered. He spent the last 7 years of his life making memories with his 2 daughters Amy Cudmore and Heidi Brousseau, as well as his 3 Grandchildren Hannah, Casey and Kayla. He was happiest sitting on the porch reading a book at his home with Heidi and her family.

Randy is also survived by his sisters Gloria and Carol, and brothers Darrell, Ralph and Jeff.

He will be dearly missed, always remembered, and forever loved.

There will be a Celebration of Life held on a date and place to be determined.
