

Jacqueline Michelle Daborn

NOVEMBER 1, 2017

With family by her side, Jackie passed away peacefully on November 1, 2017 after a brief battle with cancer.

Jackie is survived by her husband, Rob, of 43 years; son Christopher (Lisa); daughter Sarah; granddaughters Mackenzie and Brynn; mother Patricia Morton; sisters Kathy (Collin) Gustus and Kellie (Robert) Lefebvre; as well as many nieces, nephews, and friends. Jackie was predeceased by her father John Dredge and step-father Orville Morton as well as many aunts and uncles.

Jackie was born January 3, 1955 in Regina, SK and lived in Gray, SK. Jackie worked as a Registered Nurse at the Plains Hospital until it was closed. She moved to the Regina General Hospital where she worked until she retired.

Jackie had many hobbies including gardening, crocheting, doing needle point, showing her horses, and babysitting her granddaughters. The hobby that brought her the most joy however was when she started doing agility with her dogs. Jackie found this to be very challenging at times, but rewarding. She enjoyed it and you knew her dogs enjoyed it by watching them. It was through these clubs that Jackie made many new and great friends.

Jackie was a wonderful mother, sister, aunt, friend, and wife who will be greatly missed.

Please join us for her come and go Celebration of Life on Saturday, November 11, 2017 from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. in the Gray Hall, Gray, SK (Corner of Highway 306 and Main Street).

Rob and family: Remembering Jackie today as a wonderful colleague and friend. We worked together at RGH, Plains, and back to RGH. She reminded me of the "you can do it, Jackie!" When she went back to get her RN. So proud of her. You will miss her tremendously! Bless you all in this time of grief. Sincerely, Elaine Burnett Wright
