Messages of Condolence

Daisy will be greatly missed. Not because she was up front and the center of attention but quite the opposite. Daisy was hardworking, gentle, kind and even tempered. It seemed effortless for her to cook up delicious meals for large groups. Another thing that stands out about Daisy and Ray is that they took care of our four kids when they were young so Bob and I could get away for a holiday. We aren’t even related. Not many would be willing to do that but that’s just the kind of wonderful people they are. We are so grateful for Daisy. She was a beautiful servant of God! Bob and Mary Fairley

Mom, you will always been in my heart. I think about you everyday and I want you here but I know that you are up in heaven happy and cooking up a storm. I can't wait for the day that I get to see you again. Have fun with Steve and all the others up there.

The world has lost an Angel. Daisy was a selfless person, always showing the love of Jesus in everything she did….sunday school, children’s church, cooking, cleaning, helping with weddings……..whatever was asked she stepped up to the plate……and dear sweet Ray, always carrying her purse!!Daisy, by herself was a beautiful Christian women, but together, Daisy and Ray were the epitome of a servants heart and love in action! Our love to the family……you do her proud!.

To the Edwards familySending my condolences to you all. I have so many great memories of your mom in the kitchen at Blue Mountain and working with her preparing many Christmas dinners for the seniors at Friendship Manor.
