Darren, I miss you already. We had just talked to one another on the phone around the time of your birthday. I miss you brother.

I have known Darren for nearly 50 years, worked and partied with him, laughed with him until there were tears in our eyes. Now I get tears in my eyes just thinking of all the times we spent together. We used to cruise the Albert St strip and Wascana Park in the 80's. He helped me move out to Vancouver in 1990. He was always there to help. We bounced people out of the Plains Hotel, jeez we had fun. We worked the Rider games together as security through the 80's. We would go to Burger Baron late at night while cruising the "strip" in Regina. 7-11 Super Big Gulps. Old Man Barry's outdoor parties, Wascana Trails parties. Listened to him play Bonnie Tyler Total Eclipse of the Heart at full volume over and over again.

There is just so much we did and so many memories come to me every day since your passing. I miss you buddy, I really do.

I hope you are doing well Darren and you have found peace. I know the "boys" miss you also. Ferg, Scott, Bruce, Paul, Graham, we all feel the loss.

To Candy and family, my condolences. This is a huge loss for you and the family. Just know, Darren wants you to continue to move forward. If there is anything you need, even if it is just an ear to listen, call me. Darren was a big guy with an incredible heart and I know he is going to want a "big party" with all his friends present. Let's all work together to make it happen, let's bring everyone together to celebrate Darren. Let's all laugh together at the stories and experiences we all had with Darren in our lives! I can't wait.

I knew Darren long before I worked with him at Costco. He was a great guy and a very kind soul. Somehow he was still a nice guy even when he was throwing you out of a bar back in the day.

Rest Easy Big D

Candy, Jamie and Aaron, may God's peace truly be with you. Trudy and I send our passed our house, the countless greetings from him at Costco, his amazing smile and his gift of remembering peoples names, he always called us by our first names, always. We are truly blessed for knowing him. Eastview mourns with you.

Dear Candy, Jamie, Aaron, Teddy and Alex,

My heart dropped and tears fell when I saw Darren's photo. When I went to Costco, I always hoped that he would be there to greet me and that no one was behind me so I could stop and chat and catch up on the family. He loved to talk about his family. I will always remember that about him - a warm, loving and accepting family man. This comes through in his photo. I wish I was in Regina to be able to attend the Funeral Mass and give you all a hug. My thoughts will be with you as I watch the live stream. Thank you for that privilege.

— Susanne Arndt

So very sad to hear that our dear friend Darren has passed away. Although I have not been able to see Darren for many years, I recall all of the great times we had all those many years ago. Never shy to give his candid opinion and interesting perspective, Darren was a wonderful addition to any event, big or small. It never seems fair to lose someone so good so soon, but the pain is softened by thinking of all the good memories that we shared. Darren, we will miss you terribly, but know that you will rest in peace.

— Paul de Leur

The big guy at Costco will be missed, I know I will continue to look for my cousin when entering the store, with that patented beard, and jolly presence. Gone too early in life. My sincere condolences to his entire family. gord
