Messages of condolence may be left for the family

Messages of Condolence

I was so saddened to hear of Ron's death. My thoughts are with you at this sad time.

I would like to say Ron was a great man and he was a great customer of mine. I did business with Ron for at least 15 years and our condolences to all of his family. He was a great man and will be missed by many many people. I really enjoyed his company and we had many great laughs together. Again all the best to your whole family Ron.... and I will have a Scotch with you on May 4th.

— Ken Darling

I was very sorry to hear of Ron's death. He was such a lovely man, always with that twinkle in his eye. I always loved watching him tease Rosalinda and Rob. And that infectious chuckle. I will miss seeing him at Rob's and Rosa's birthday parties. My deepest condolences to the whole family.

— Ann Levey

Sorry to hear of Ron's passing. I enjoyed working with him.

Great sense of humour, even during the most difficult jobs. Never a quitter.

Robert, Rosalinda & Family

We are very sorry to hear of your loss. You are in our thoughts & prayers. We hope you hold some comfort knowing that your father is with the Lord & that friends are holding you in our hearts at this difficult time.

— Steve & Sue Isaac

I will miss Ron alot and really enjoyed seeing him when he came to the Bingo Palace to play. My heart goes out to Pat and family. He was a awesome man with a great sense of humor. He will be missed. Again my deepest condolences.
