I met Henny for first time when I joined Tupperware. Henny was very loving and encouraging; and inclusive:) She cares about everyone who was at the Tupperware meetings.... she had a wealth of knowledge and was open to sharing... she was also extremely lucky and won lots of Tupperware prizes!!!! I am great full for having the opportunity to be part of her life! I am thankful that she still came to Tupperware events even when she was in pain and struggling because her precense filled the room
With joy! Thankyou her children for sharing your mom with Tupperware :) she truly was a beautiful woman and will be missed!

I have many fond memories of playing at the Davie house under the loving watch of Henny. No one was kinder, happier and more generous in spirit as her. She was a blessing to her community and to me growing up. Lots of love to her family

Hi Cheryl. I just read about the passing of your Mom, and alas I'll be out of town tomorrow.

She had many friends, and her writing career with BC Holstein appealed to many, many readers in the BC Holstein fraternity.

Best to you and family, Ron

— Ron Barker

I remember Henny as a loving and kind-hearted woman. I spent one Christmas with her and the rest of Davie family, and even though I was far away from my own family, she took me into theirs during that Christmas. I will always cherish those memories and the memory of this wonderful, warm lady! She was a living angel, and definitely amongst them now.

I never met Henny, but felt I knew her through reading "Udder News" in the BC Holstein News. I always enjoyed her comments. My condolences to her family.

Henny's celebration of life was beautifully done, loved the music that Henny had picked which were some of her favourite's. It was a nice tribute to Henny. May God's peace and comfort surround her family as they grieve her loss□ □

I met Henny from ordering Tupperware (advertised in the Holstein News). I didn't know her too long but felt like I knew her a very long time. She was such a wonderful friend. I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven.

I have many fond memories of Aunt Henny. I remember my years of being the Reporter for the 4H club and having to email updates to her. I remember a highlight of going to the farm shows and seeing her in her booth. In my years of 4H I remember her being at all the fairs with her camera.

I would like to send my condolences to Henny’s family. I was so honoured and happy to be a small part of Henny’s life . Her smile, her giggles and her love of the Lord and her family was very important to her . Thank you Henny for letting me share some special times with you . Her bright orange nail painting was a very happy day . Oh how she giggled when she talked about what her family would say ! Rest in Peace sweet Henny!
I will forever be thankful of the time we shared !
