My condolences to all of Barb's family. Barb will always be remembered by me, as a person who totally loved her family of cats. I spent time with her looking through her picture albums the day after her Mom passed away. Barb had nothing but positive thoughts in talking of her Mom and how she would miss her. I will always remember one thing about Barb. I picked her up and took her to see the movie "Walk the line" the story of Johnie Cash. She so thoroughly enjoyed it she stood and clapped at the end of the movie. That was Barb

Dear Jerry and family. I am so sorry for your loss. Barbara and I were friends for many years - since the 1960's when we met in the Navy Reserve. I have many fond memories of Barbara. Most recently we shared Tuesday afternoons at the Crowfoot Library for Stitch & Chat time. Remembering Barbara and thinking of you at this sad time. Sincerely, Carol McLauchlin.
