I met Derek in Venezuela in 2016 and since then we became very close friends. He was kind, gentle, happy, loved to chat and was always thirsty of knowledge. He loved to know about Latin america and his people, and we always spoke about that. I will never forget the tours I had to give to him around my city so he could learn how to use the public transportation. That's how Derek was: humild, outgoing, expresive, good-hearted, always concerned about others. Rest in peace my friend. You will always have a special place in my heart. My condolences to his family and friends ¡Vuelta alto amigo!

— Magda

Eternal peace grant to his soul. Our prayers and condolences to the family.

— Aquiles and Erna
