Theodore Elidoros

JUNE 17, 2013

Born in 1923 went to another Bonspiel June 17 2013.

Oh, I have slipped the surely bonds of earth’, And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings; Sunward I‘ve climbed and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds…… And done a hundred things you have not dreamed of…….

Wheeled and soared and swung.

High in the sunlit silence. Hovering there, I’ve chased the sunlit silence wind along and flung My eager craft through footless halls of air.

Up, up the long delirious, burning blue I’ve topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace, Where never Lark, or even Eagle, flew; And, while with silent, lifting mind I’ve trod The high untrespassed sanctity of space, Put out my hand and touched the face of God.

Ted and Francie are together again and will be going out for an evening of cocktails, socializing …..and dancing the night away at the Glenmore Curling club ……don’t wait up …….

You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence for the family.

Messages of Condolence

Fondly remembered for our short but happy, cousin-type get-togethers over the last four and a half decades in Winnipeg, Point Clair and the Lower Mainland. Theo and Francie's hospitality in Quebec was always first class.
A "top notch" guy - condolences to all the family.
Bill Heidrick

— bill heidrick

Mr. Elidoros was the best boss I ever had. I worked for him in 1978 at Timken as his secretary. I never had to ask for a raise, they always came automatically. He would always say... Call me Ted. But he was and will always be Mr. Elidoros to me. He was kind, intelligent and most importantly a very fine man.

— Carol greenough

We had the pleasure of being neighbours on Corbett Drive for fifteen years (to 2002). Our children fondly referred to Ted as "neighbour Ted" because they had difficulty saying Mr. Elidoros. Ted's generosity included treating our family with tickets for the Shrine Circus for many years and the kids could always count on Ted to buy whatever they were selling for either a school or bowling fundraiser. We consider ourselves fortunate to have known Ted (and Francine). Our sympathy and condolences to the family.

— Dorothy and Bruce Croghan (& family)
