

Ann Colleen Enns

JANUARY 29, 2022

Ann Colleen Enns, formerly of Avonlea, SK, passed away in Regina, SK on January 29, 2022.

Colleen is survived by Art, her loving husband of 60 years; son Brett (Jennie) Enns and their children Cole (Megan), Jayne (Mark), Emma and Ethan; daughter Shauna (Tim) Archer and their children Kaleb and Annie; sister-in-law Naidene Thompson; niece Kim (Eric) Bjornsson and their children Connor, Seth and Joel; and life-long friend Cheryl Harlos. She was predeceased by her parents Jack and Mae Thompson; siblings Wanda and Wayne; and special friend Beulah Goby.

Colleen was born in Amulet, SK on January 24, 1941. She was the youngest of three. After her schooling, Colleen went to work and met Art in Ogema, SK. They married in 1961 with Brett and Shauna joining the family soon thereafter. A move to Avonlea lasted for 48 years until they moved to Regina in 2017. Colleen had her life in order led by her faith in God and love of family and friends. She enjoyed the simplicity of life, the wonders of nature, working in the garden and sharing the fruits of her labour over home-cooked meals. Colleen was a hard worker, loyal friend and loving wife, mom and grandmother who will be deeply missed until we are reunited in heaven.

The family is grateful for Dr's Kurtz, Rediger, Salim, and Johnson; Home Care and Palliative Teams; Staff at College Park II, Regina Pasqua Hospital Unit 3A and Regina Wascana Grace Hospice for their compassionate care.

Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, February 6, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. in Living Hope Alliance Church, 3800 Green Falls Dr., Regina, SK. (livestream at www.youtube.com/livinghoperegina).

Friends may donate, in Colleen's memory, to Regina Wascana Grace Hospice, 50 Angus Road, Regina, SK S4R 8P6. You are invited to leave a personal message of condolence at the family's online obituary at: www.MyAlternatives.ca

Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord. Psalm 31:24

The Rev. Elmer Childerhouse when near his end asked his daughter to read Psalm 23. He then asked her where she thought they were in the Psalm. She replied "I think we are in the valley of the shadow of death." "yes,he replied,but don't worry, in order to have shadows , there has to be light.I'm simply moving On toward the Light. " Coleen has moved on to the Light! Our prayers and condolences go out to you Art and your family. Blessings and Peace from Dave & Sandra.

To the dear Enns family,

My deepest sympathy to you on the loss of Colleen. Johnny and I had so many wonderful memories of our friendship over the years. She was such a godly woman.

— Gladys Erdelyan

Art, Brett, Shauna and families, our sincere sympathy to all of you as you grieve the loss of Colleen, your dear Wife, Mom and Gramma.

May you sense and know the loving arms of God around you, holding you tight.

The memorial service was very honouring to her and a blessing to Ed and me as we watched, remembering, with fond memories the good times we've shared.

— Ed and Linda Smith

My deepest condolences to the Enns family. Colleen was a beautiful Godly woman that I was fortunate to meet.

— Brenda Evans

To Art, Shauna, Brett and families, what a lovely service for your mom she would be so pleased. I am so sorry we were unable to be there in person but we were there in spirit! Shauna your eulogy was definitely a Testament To who she was, she definitely left this world a better place because of her being in it! Will be thinking of you and praying for you all in the coming months as you adjust to life without her! Love and hugs to you Art! ☐
