My deepest condolences to Corey's family and friends. I didn't know Corey for very long, but in the short time we did know each other, he was funny, kind, caring and could always make me laugh. I didn't need to know him for a long time to know that he didn't deserve what happened to him. My thoughts and prayers go to all who loved Corey that are grieving for his loss, that you find comfort knowing he is now in a peaceful place with all the people who passed before him having a great reunion. Rest in Peace Corey...see you on the other side buddy
