Wesley passed away peacefully with his family at his side in the Didsbury Hospital on Thursday, September 3, 2020 at the age of 92 years. Wes married May in 1951, moved to Merritt, BC in 1960 and raised his family, living there until 2005 when he resettled in Alberta. He was a fisherman, loved camping with his family every weekend and a long time dedicated carpenter whose true passion was metal work in his backyard workshop. A private family service will be held at a later date.
