Messages of Condolence

Oh Heather and Brian and Family, my heart is crying as I just ran across Daniel's funeral card. I am in total shock as I write this because I know you are feeling such great sadness over your loss. I just saw Daniel in August and as always, he always had a kind word and big smile for me. Daniel has always had a very special place in my heart and I can still remember his mischievous look when he cracked jokes in kindergarten. At such a young age, Daniel understood my wry sense of humor and often times, we would be the only ones laughing. As a family, we are lifting your entire family to God, that he will strengthen and carry you through this most difficult journey. Our utmost condolences for you all. May the God of peace surround you entirely.

Love you all.

Brian:

I'm so very sorry to learn of the loss of your son Daniel. Allow me to share my sincere condolences. I can't imagine your pain. You should recall that we made friends during law school. In many ways, you served as a mentor. We shared some fun times. I was a guest in your home. You were a guest in my home. I attended your wedding. We have crossed paths since, but briefly. I will connect soon, and offer my support. Kind regards, Mike

— Michael J Swanson QC

I just saw this. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
