Brian Michael Frei Jr

MARCH 16, 2023

Brian Michael Frei

January 1979 – March 16, 2023

“Today we say goodbye to you, not because we want to but because you left us no choice; and not enough time to mend what was broken!

A happy and beautiful child with a smile that would light up a room to a curious and sometimes mischievous teenager to a troubled soul whom we loved no matter what…

You are at peace now and in that we take some comfort for your short time here on Earth. Love sees no end in the end but only unanswered questions, regrets, memories, waves of heartache, laughter, and a space that once occupied our hearts and forever will be void.

Junior, your heart was so big, your opinions strong, your laugh contagious, your smile bright, and no matter what the circumstances just know you were loved but above all a child of God. Let your troubles go now and take his hand into a light that sees no pain, no judgement, no tears, no hunger, no cold, and will forever embrace you now with loving arms!

There’s an old saying “you never know what you had until it’s gone “ but we knew deep down what you were to us…OUR Son, OUR Brother, OUR Father, OUR Uncle, and friend.

I know someday we will meet again, not tomorrow, not next week, but one day your eyes will find mine and all will be forgotten. We love you no matter what you thought and never gave up on the hope that someday you could rejoin our lives here on Earth. So until we meet again, peace and love Jr…”

There will be a private gathering at a later date. Flowers gratefully declined however donations in Brian's memory and honor can be made to the Canadian Mental Health Association https://cmharegina.com/ or Souls Harbour Rescue Mission in Regina Home | Souls Harbour Rescue Mission (shrmsk.com)

Ottila we were so devastated to hear about the loss of your son. Please accept my love and deepest sympathy at this deeply saddening time. My heart is heavy knowing your Brian is no longer with us. I wanted to call you but the number I had for you wasn't in service.

— Katherine Crowe

Rest Easy Brian. I will forever remember the fun times we had.

— Jaci Youngson

My good friends, Brian and Otilla and Families...my heart, love and friendship go out to you all, at this time of deep sadness. Junior was a great help to many of us in the neighborhood, car washing, window cleaning to name a few, always with a smile. He is at peace and in the loving arms of God. Know that your friends are close and near by.

— Shelley Slator

So Sorry Brian & Ottila for your loss, I hope you have lots of good memories of your wonderful son.He will be greatly missed

Dear Family, I have no words that will chase away your pain but please know myself and all your family here on the West Coast send warm hugs of love to you all. I know John is waiting for him to give him a heavenly hug and welcome him to peace. Love to you all

— Karen Martin

So sorry to hear about your son. I remember you from years ago when we both ran childcare homes. We lost our son in 2009. I am here if you need someone to talk to

— Janet Dvernichuk

Brian, Ottila and family, I’am heartbroken to hear of the loss of your son Brian, he was always friendly and ready to help me put light bulbs in the garage and show me how to charge my car. Murray and I always enjoyed chatting with him by the deck! So sorry for your loss he will be missed!

— Marlene Schoenthaler

Brian & Tillie : I am so sorry to hear of Brian's passing. My condolences go out to all the family and friends.

— Maurese Mullaney

My sincerest and deepest sympathy to all Brian’s loved ones. Brian and I intermittently crossed paths throughout our lives, he always had a positive and energetic way about him in our interactions.

May he rest in peace.

— Shannon

So Sorry to hear of Brian's passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Brian, Ottila, Carrie, Chris and families.

— Sharon Clarke

Dear Brian, Ottila and family,
We are so sorry for your loss of your dear son. Grief can be a crushing weight. Memories can deepen our sense of loss and it may seem that to stop our memories may lesson our grief. But those good memories and the grief will lead to a soothing, healing one day as you think about them and share with each other. Treasure those good memories, they will become a gift to sustain you and bring you joy.
May “the Father of tender mercies who Comforts us” be with you today and the days to come.

— Kim and Cheryl Badley

Love above Brian. I too just lost my brother a week ago today, at the age of 36. My heart goes out to your family and friends at this troubling tragic time. Though we didn't know each other long; I wanted to leave a note for your family. Sorry for your loss.
Condolences

— Desiree

I just herd the news Brian you were a hard working man I will never forget the few weeks you spent with me at co op redoing the landscaping keeping everyone on mark and working, slackers canned God how I will miss you but heavens a better place and will miss the long talks about life and the shit show world we live in my deepest condolences to Brian's family boy this is a total shock

— Brandon worley

He was my friend. In fact, best friend for a period of my life. Hard to belive I'm writing this. I'm gonna miss you brother.
Friends always.
