Messages of Condolence

I would like to wish my condolences to the family. I heard so many good stories about Joe. Just sorry I never had the chance to meet him. I believe that he is well now, done his suffering. He is in my prayers.

Dad - I lied to you I promised that I would not cry and that I would be strong. I can't I am hurting deeply and I miss you so much. I told you to let go daddy your little girl could do this on her own but I can't not even a little bit. I miss you so much... I love you and I cherish the years that we had together. I want you to be happy dad and I hope that you are. Please send me a sign to let me know that you are ok and that I will be. I love you dad xoxoxoxo

Hello my Papa, well today is going to be a very hard day. Today we say good bye to you. As much as I am glad that you are not hurting anymore, I am sad because I miss you so much. I miss the sparkle in your eyes when you told me how much you loved me, and the big smile you would get when I walked into the room. I love you so much Dad. I know that Clayton and Mom met you and they are showing you the ropes up there. I can only imagine how many wet willies Clayton has given you... Please give them both big hugs and kisses from me. I know you will be watching over us from up above, and you will now be able to see it all my Papa. I will miss you greatly but will talk to you often.....

Uncle Vince, it is with great sadness when I heard of your passing. I always remember your smiling face and sense of humour. I know you are more comfortable now, enjoying some laughs with my mom and dad, and all the others the passed before you. My thoughts are with your children and grandchildren. Lots of love.
