Arnold and Carol

I recall how you spoke of your parents with such love. Sincere condolences, may your mother now walk hand in hand again with your dad.

I was saddened to learn of Johanna's passing. I live in Broadway Terrace as she did, and often sat at the table next to hers. She was a lovely friendly lady and I'll miss seeing her at dinners.

She was pleased when I told her I knew her sister at Wascana Manor and I was sorry that we never got a chance to get together . My deepest sympathy to her family!

Sincerely, Marg Dean at 303 Broadway Terrace .

Sending our condolences from BC. I will always remember tante hanni and her rosey cheeks and onkel karls twinkle in his eye. It has been a long time since we were children in Regina but our weekends were always spent together. Time has passed us by but our memories will last forever. Thinking of you all especially Brigitte.

Love Inge and family and tante Emma
