Lynanne and family sending my sincere sympathy. May all the wonderful memories make this difficult time easier. Brian was a great guy...I met him several times and he was always so easy to talk too...even when my dad would hand me the phone and both Brian and I would have to figure out who we were talking too. I remember impressing him with my driving skills when I picked him and my parents up at the Toronto Airport and drove them downtown with out a glitch...then drove them back to the airport in rush hour traffic. Rest assured that dad and Brian are together again doing what they always did. Take care and sending hugs.

I wrote the following on my Facebook post. Brian was a very important person to my parents and to me as I was growing up...this is a copy of the post I wrote

Just found out that someone dear to my heart has past away, although I have not seen him or even kept in touch in recent years, Brian Good was a neighbor and friend who I grew up with, for the first 25 years if my life. He played in a band with his brother Stan Good and my father, I remember many Burns nights listening to them play. Between Brian and my Dad they calved hundreds of cows, many times they would call each other in the middle of the night to assist with a difficult birth, followed by a wee dram once successful . Brian was the one I called if there was trouble on the farm when my parents were not home. We alternated back and forth at each other's homes to watch every game Gretzky played. Our families traveled together to Disneyland . I babysat Tracy Good Becker and Kevin Good all the time. Turns were taken between homes for weekly card games. Brian and his family (including his parents and siblings) were all extremely close to my parents especially to my Dad from the time he settled here in the early 50s. Dad spoke of both Brian and Stan of how he cared so deeply for them as he watched them grow up and eventually formed their band. They would play in all the bars when they were way under age lol. These are just a few of the memories I have. So although I have not seen Brian in some time. He was a very special person in my life for many many years and he was definitely an important person to my Dad and my Mom. I have ao many memories of Brian and of the times we spent together. My heartfelt condolences to all the Good family. To Lynanne, Tracy, Kevin, Stan, Roxanne, Lauren, Nathan, Trudy, Don, Wade, Tammy and all the extended family
He was a very special man.

Please accept our deepest sympathies to Lynanne, Kevin, Tracy, and the rest of the family on the loss of Brian. I can't say enough good things about Brian. I remember when I was tasked with buying bulls for the ranch the first person I called was Brian and he set me up with some great contacts that lead to some great bulls over the years. His honesty and integrity always lead his conversations. Over the years I loved travelling to bull sales with Brian and sorting through the bulls presale. He was a dear friend and I will miss our travels together. I always looked forward to our phone conversations and visits. His memories will be cherished.

Dear Lynneanne and family,

My heart is filled with emotion as we come to the end of a journey for Brian. I have never met a couple that completed each other as much as you and Brian, Lynneanne. You were his ROCK. You have both been great friends, supporters and advocates for me and my family. I will forever cherish memories, quick witted sayings, great mentorship moments and one of the most valued sounding boards ever. I will never forget the smile, the laugh, the one liners, the encouragement, the stubbornness, the sincerity within every word. True friends are hard to come by, valued immensely and cherished forever. Unfortunately, I cannot be with you in person today, but as you and Brian know, I am sharing in the celebration of this wonderful man's life from home. Prayers, hugs, and warm smiles of remembrance help us through the days ahead. God Bless you all.

— Deb Verbonac

Dear Lynnanne and family,

I was so very saddened to hear about Brian's passing. Sending sincere condolences on your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. I told Hoss about Brian passing, but he did not fully understand who l was talking about. Hoss and Brian were at many events and sales together. Brian would let Hoss know how a sale or show went and yes it as the other way lots too. We have enjoyed both your friendships over the years, which started many years ago. It started working with Glenn and Dot Good. I am sorry we're not able to attend the service but with Hoss's health and also my health which has not been good since December last year.

May God Bless you with comfort and strength in the days and months ahead. I will continue to keep you in my prayers. If one of your family could pass on your mailing address that would be appreciated. Rest In Peace "Gooder".

— Ena Hammer

Hello Lynanne I had not heard about Brian's passing until I by chance read it on line tonite. I first met Brian in the late 80's on a trip to Guadalajara with ACABA. Drew and Brian had been friends for years. We had a great time but I remember Brian so often said "I so wish Lynanne had come". I didn't meet you until later but I wished you'd been there too. And Brian saying that so sincerely always stuck with me.

I hope what they say about this "after life" is true and Drew and Brian can be talking bulls and cattle and all the things they loved.

I so hope to see you sometime Lynnanne
