I miss you Aunty Darlenie, my second momma. You were such a fun loving person and were always there when I needed a chat or good laugh. Thank you for being such an amazing Great Aunty Darween to Attleigh. You were one of her favourite people. I wish you had more time to get to know baby Holden. I will make sure I speak of you often so the kids can remember how much they were loved. ♥

Oh my dear friend, I so miss you. You were my go to girl, when I couldn't remember people we worked with at Sears, you remember everyone's name and something about them. I miss our messenger conversations. I can hear your laughter and knowing you, you are talking someones ear off up in heaven. Now the angels are the lucky ones and we have to wait to see you again. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all your family who are missing you so much at this sad time. I will always cherish the friendship we have had over the last 30 years. Rest easy beautiful lady.

— Cheryl Young

I am so sad to hear of Darlene's passing. She worked with our unit only for a brief time but that's all it took for everyone to appreciate her work ethics and fun loving personality. May she be free from pain and in peace looking over her family and friends.

— Julie Poncsak

Losing someone we love is devastating, and no words can ever really relieve that pain. But to help, I wish you courage and healing during these toughest of days. Cry when you feel like it. Let the laughter roll when it comes. And know that Darlene/sister/mom will forever live on in the journeys you shared together.
Rest In Peace my sweet friend
