He was predeceased by his father Harry Green; mother Beatrice (nee Wells) Green; his brother Clarence Green; previous wife Ruth (Johnston) Johnsen; and son John Johnsen.

William is survived by his children Dianna (Nealer) Johnsen, Robert (Glori-Anne) Johnsen, Sandra (Ken) Cozma, Gina (Marv) Wright, and Anna (Kevin) Pratt; along with grandchildren Crystal (Cozma) Wood, Josh Johnsen, Sarah (Corbin Bulani) Veillette, Jesse Johnsen, Travis Pratt (Shaoju Wu), Connor (Anessa Eckert) Cozma, Taylor Pratt, Jaqueline (Kyle White) Wright, Cameron Cozma, Rachel Wright, David Johnsen, Carter Cozma, Carl Cozma and Tanner Pratt; two great-grandchildren Cambrey Wood and Wesley Wood; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and even more family members.

William was born on May 2, 1936 in Newfoundland and spent most of his childhood there and in Ontario. At the age of 27 he married his second wife Ruth and they later chose to move to Regina, Saskatchewan together; where he enjoyed the rest of his life. Always ready to help fix any type of car, he devoted most of his life to being a mechanic. He really could help you fix all things, not just cars! William spent most of his days tinkering with anything and everything, reading magazines, and watching his "stories". His favorite things to do were driving to anywhere and nowhere as long as the engine was going, and collecting all sorts of treasures, and some not so practical things too. He was a loving father, grandfather, great-grandfather, friend, and will be greatly missed by many.

We love you and we'll miss you Grandpa, go enjoy all the classic cars in Heaven.
