Dear Mimi and girls, I was very sorry to hear of Sarks passing. May your memories get you through this difficult time and give you comfort.

Our deepest condolences to all the family. We have so many memories of good times with Sark, Mimi, and the girls. Joe was especially sorry when he heard that Sark was ill as he had always enjoyed visiting with him, talking about Lebanon and other topics, and he was looking forward to perhaps having an opportunity to visit with him again. Our thoughts and love are with all of you.
