Messages of Condolence

We are deeply saddened at the loss of James. We have so many memories of him over the years and we know Pat and his family are heartbroken over the loss of their very dear friend. He was truly a gentle compassionate man and we will always remember him that way. It is a very sad day.

Dennis and Val Dobbyn

Our heartfelt thoughts go out to the family today. James will be dearly missed. With our most deepest sympathy in this time of pain and sorrow.

— Jack and Gayle Tillapaugh

Gone far too young. Worked with him in the younger years and he was funny yet very quiet. May the memories you comfort you through these times of grief. Thinking of you Brenda and family.

— Bonnie Buckle

Our thoughts and prayers to all of you my friend. May the love and strength of all that are with you in heart and spirit help you through this time and the future. I'll be there in thought on Saturday.

— Diane and Richard michaud

We are so sorry to hear of the loss of James. We will remember all the years of friendship the boys had. We are glad we had the opportunity to spend time with them as men at Todd & Jenny's wedding. Our thoughts are with you all. Cathy & Gary

— Gary and Cathy Pachal

A big shout out to James, I especially admire him for his generosity and kind nature, even from when I was a little kid. he was a great friend to my brother and he will be missed by many. Rest in peace Jameso
