On Monday August 20 I was looking out my frot bedroom window reflecting on Shawna and her life since I met her. Her beautiful smile and always thinking of some fun entertainment to have around. Shawna was all about happiness and laughter for everyone, birthday BBQ,s etc. As I reflected, my eyes focused on the small garden and there I noticed 1 purple flower and right next to is 6 white daisies. the thought suddenly came to me purple and white.....Shawna and 6 white Angels to carry her home. I have looked every morning since, they are still there but the daisies are gradually fading.

Thinking of you and praying for strength for the whole family.
